HAMLIN, JONES COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JULY 15, 1933

NUMBER 37

AIR-COOLED PLACE TO VOTE

This is important news to all voters of Hamlin East Box No. 19. You will not have to climb the old City Hall steps and vote in the heat.

This year the voting place for East Hamlin is in the HOME LUMBER CO. offices, where the air is conditioned and shady places to walk and no steps to climb.

Miss Lennie Greenway has been appointed presiding judge of Box 19, probably the first woman to hold that place in Jones county.

All West Hamlin voters will go to the High School as usual to vote in Box No. 30. No cool air over there.

W. S. Flowers and wife of San Francisco, returned to their home this week after spending a good time here visiting his brother, Roy Flowers and family, and his sister, Mrs. R. T. Cypert. Carter Flowers and family of Midland came over too and the three brothers went to Bennington, Okla., to visit the fourth brother, J. B. Flowers. All had a good time.

MRS. M. BARRETT DIED SUNDAY

Mrs. Martha Barrett, age 76 years, 10 months and 12 days, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. Miller, between the Swedonia and Hitson communities, Sunday at 12:25 P. M.

Mrs. Barrett was a native of Texas and had lived in Fisher County but about five years. She is survived by her husband, M. M. Barrett, and one daughter, Mrs. E. Miller, and two brothers, the Mr. Rodens of Johnson County. All were present for the funeral. There are several grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Hitson tabernacle on Monday at 2:00 P. M. conducted by Minister Jackson of McCaulley. Interment was in the Afton Cemetery in the Hitson community, under the direction of the Barrow Funeral Directors.

HAMLIN MASONIC LODGE INSTALLS OFFICERS

On last Monday night at regular stated meeting the following were installed as officers for the ensuing Masonic year by E. C. Feagan, D. D. G. M. of the 75th Masonic District and who was appointed as installing officer by the worshipful master. Ira Clements, W. M., W.; W. G. Rountree, S. W.; C. S. Barrow, J. W.; J. W. McCrary, S. D.; V. V. Anderson, J. D.; W. E. Benson, Secretary, and J. O. Hopper, Tiler.

Mrs. Tom Stapleton and son Bynum, of Sparsburg, came Saturday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Van Huling and family, the week end.

GOING TO ANSON TONIGHT—SEE

One of the most colorful street parades in this section is promised for the annual Folk Fiesta at Anson Friday, July 15 at 6 P. M. In the parade will be seen ten Kiowa Indian braves, in Indian regalia. That night they will also do their Indian tribal dances at the Fiesta to be held in the new athletic stadium.

A number of floats have been entered from Hamlin, Stamford, Abilene, and Anson for the parade. There will also be four bands, according to those who have already accepted. The Stamford Legion band, composed of musicians from that organization, Hamlin and Lueders; the Stamford high school band; the Anson band, and the Aspermont band.

Many old time conveyances will also be seen, including ladies dressed in the fashions of the eighties riding a side saddle on a trusty horse. On Saturday, strolling musicians on the streets and that night a street dance.

FISHING IN ARKANSAS

The Herald has a card from Mrs. 'Chuck' McCurdy, postmarked at War Eagle, Ark. She says: "All you've heard about this country is true. We slept under 4 quilts last night and I think I'll get under my mattress. Rainy and damp today. Chuck says it's a 'fisherman's paradise'."

That's the way your friends treat you these hot days. Go off into the cool places and send back cards of water and shade to us guys who are melting here under a West Texas sun. Glad to hear of enjoyment and pastime.

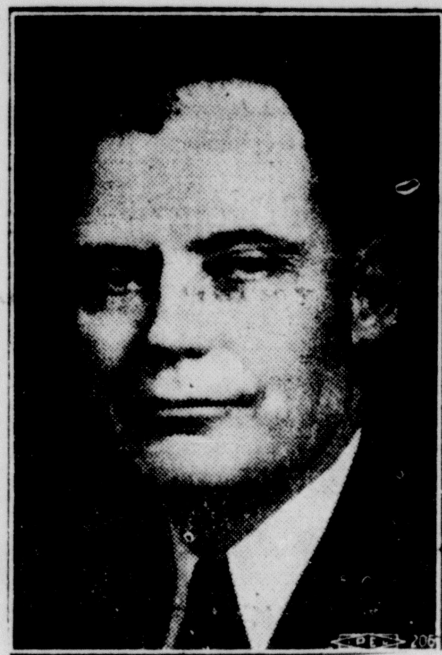

D. L. Echols of Tyler is with the Reynolds Pharmacy as chief pharmacist. He has been here about two weeks. Mr. Echols is a single man and being from East Texas, especially Tyler, he misses his "peaches." After awhile West Texas' red beans will taste good.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sneed of Amarillo were down the past week visiting old friends. Mr. Sneed formerly lived in Hamlin, in the compress business, but now he is in "politics," as he is working in a department of the capitol.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Huling of Corpus Christi came up last Thursday to visit his sick brother, H. H. Huling, at Aspermont, who is very ill. They will likely spend several weeks in Hamlin with their children.

S. E. Riddle and his sister-in-law, Miss Viola Cobb, visited in Hamlin Wednesday from San Angelo. Mr. Riddle once lived here and still owns his home here. He is working out of San Angelo to Altus, Okla. and return to San Angelo for the Santa Fe as express and baggageman on the regular passenger run.

MR. SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE

Coke Stevenson, candidate for lieutenant-governor, made speeches at Cuero and Brady recently to several thousand people stressing the fact that he is the candidate of no clique or class, but as lieutenant-governor he will represent all the people in a fair, square and impartial manner. He said:

"I am living in the county where I was born. I have lived all my life among the ranch people, in a country where there are no railroads, oil fields or other giant corporations. There has never been any opportunity for me to represent corporations because they have no business in my section of the country, consequently, I am not under obligations to any special interests of any character whatsoever.

"My life has been spent among people who cherish the home, school and the church. I have always been exceedingly interested in the education of the youth of the land. Perhaps that is the reason why the school fund rose from $15 to $22 per capita during my term as Speaker of the House. I have supported every measure which benefit the schools. When I introduced my land bill, H. B. 579, I sought to create a school land board to lease the state-owned school lands. I provided that the board should fix the royalties on school land at any amount which they might determine to be for the best interest of the school fund, but in no case to be less than 1/2 of the oil and gas, and $1.00 per ton on sulphur. This royalty on sulphur is double the amount which private land owners customarily contract to receive.

"Perhaps my life in the ranch country accounts for the remarkable record which I made for attendance in the legislature. During the one thousand times I opened sessions of the legislature it was never one minute late.

"Several attempts have been made lately to besmirch my record by those who would engage in a mud-slinging campaign. This does not alarm me. It is one of the penalties which a man in public life must endure. Consolation is derived, however, from the fact that the great majority of people appreciate the honest, constructive, progressive measures enacted during my administration such as the Old Age Assistance, Teacher's Retirement, State Auditor's law, State Budget law, State Bond Assumption law, Farm-to-Market Road law, reorganization of Comptroller and Treasurer's departments, exemption of all homesteads from state taxation, and many other beneficial measures.

Mrs. D. G. Patterson of Galveston and Mrs. B. L. Cooley of Jayton, Texas, who have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Shannon of the Hamlin & Northwestern Ry. Co., have returned to their homes. Mr. Shannon says the only missing one of the family that would have made a family reunion was his youngest son, W. S. Jr., who lives at Waco. He could not come at this time.

Ben Ferguson of Dallas was in town Wednesday from Kemp City in company with his mother, Mrs. B. S. Ferguson, who had visited with her daughter, Mrs. A. D. Ensey.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wells and their sister, Mrs. J. E. Slavin, all of Tulsa, came Sunday to visit their brother, F. D. Wells and family until Thursday.

COUNTY CANDIDATES NOT TO SPEAK

It looked for a while that Hamlin people would get a little fun by listening to the Jones County candidates speak in Hamlin before the election date, but the set date was cancelled.

County Chairman, Clarence Johnson was over Monday and arranged to have the county candidates speak here Wednesday night before the election, but the candidates got together or at least a majority of them, Monday night and considered the matter and finally decided that it would be too hard on them to work all the hot day through and then have to go and speak to a merry handful of tired, sleepy people at night. The new aspirants for office, however, would rather like the idea of getting before the people to leave an impression. Anyway there will be no public speaking as a group this year in Hamlin, Stamford and Anson, according to the latest reports.

Hamlin has been skipped this year more than usual by state candidates. There has so far been but one candidate for governor to personally appear here and not more than a few dozen people could spell his name as you read this. One candidate for governor came through with his "horns" and the tune was "I double dare you." Only one candidate for Railroad Commissioner has appeared in Hamlin, and took about 15 minutes to ballahoo. One candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture was here, and he made a good impression. Outside of this, up to this date, this is all the state candidates who have visited Hamlin. But Hamlin may be just as well off, however it is some satisfaction to see and hear the fellow who might be an officer sometime in Texas. Yes, we are forgetting to say that State Supt. L. A. Wood stopped here a short while.

BASE BALL NEWS

In an eleven inning game Saturday the Hitson club defeated Royston by a score of eight to six.

McCaulley Red Caps and the Wise Chapel Owls will play in the Hamlin park Saturday in another league game.

People were as thick as bees over in McCaulley Sunday and saw the Red Caps score fourteen times to defeat Peacock, fourteen to three.

By the time this goes to press the Red Caps and the undefeated General Crude Oilers will be playing in the Hamlin park. And from the way we feel now, the prediction is—the Red Caps will still be undefeated in the Hamlin park when this game is over.

GOSPEL MEETING AT FLAT TOP

A gospel meeting is to start at Flat Top Sunday night, July 24. Jack King, local minister of the Church of Christ at Tell, Texas, is to do the preaching. Services will be held in the open, beginning at 8:30 each night. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these services.

Miss Vera McKay, a teacher in the Roby schools, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. L. Young and family in Abilene, and returned to her home near Royston Monday. Mrs. Young and little Miss Laura Lee came with her to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McKay.

Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Stringer and little daughter, Terry, spent last week in Amarillo visiting Mrs. J. H. Stringer, their mother, who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Moore and family of Fort Worth spent the Fourth here visiting relatives. Their sons, C. L. and Jack, remained for a month's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Templeton and Mrs. R. Y. Barrow, accompanied a group of the Epworth League to Sweetwater Tuesday night to enjoy a swimming party in the municipal pool.

The Herald anywhere 1 yr., $1.00.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NEWS

Beginning May 1 our organization commenced transporting bran and poison from the county agent at Anson. Have had hauled in all 27,000 pounds of bran and approximately 200 gallons of poison and the only cost the Chamber of Commerce has been out is the hauling which totaled $35.00. The Home Lumber Co. very graciously furnished space to mix the poison and a man to help the farmers, while at Stamford and Anson the organizations had to pay rent for storage and some one to help mix the poison. There still remains a small supply of this poison at the Home Lumber Co.

HAMLIN FURNISHES COUNTY SPONSOR FOR FOLK FESTIVAL AT ANSON

A Hamlin girl was selected to represent the County at the Annual

Folk Festival being held in Anson the last three days of this week, namely, Miss Geneva Albritton. The three organizations consisting of the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club and Lions Club are furnishing decorated float or floats for the occasion. A large attendance from Hamlin is expected.

SECRETARY TO ATTEND 7TH ANNUAL CLINIC

At the last regular meeting of the Directors it was voted that the Secretary attend the 7th annual Chamber of Commerce Clinic or school for Chamber of Commerce Executives and Secretaries to be held at Baker Hotel in Dallas July 18 to 22. Various phases of Chamber of Commerce work will be handled by experts, and this is sponsored by the Dallas Chamber of Commerce.

COTTON CLASSING SCHOOL IN ABILENE

Inasmuch as the Texas Technological College has planned to hold a cotton school in Abilene from July 18 through July 30, the West Texas Cotton Growers Association will not conduct their school as has been customary in the past.

The school to be conducted here by the Texas Tech College will be under the supervision of Professor M. E. Heard, who is head of the Textile Engineering Department of the college. Mr. Heard will be assisted by Mr. Lewis Myers, who is supervisor of licensed classers with the United States Department of Agriculture.

It is my understanding that there will be a $10.00 tuition charge to pay costs of transportation of samples, etc. The West Texas Cotton Growers Association is furnishing samples free of charge to the school, and we will be glad to have you visit us when you attend the school.

NEW EYE MACHINE

Dr. McCrary announces that he has just recently installed one of the very latest screen projectors to be found in the scientific fields for eye testing and glass fitting. With this machine backed up by 25 years experience, he will be able to give the public everything to be desired in accuracy and precision in eye work.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams of Wichita Falls came down for a week end visit with their daughter, Mrs. Brad Rowland. They were accompanied by their grandson Brad Jr., who could not stay a month away from his parents.

Mrs. Bert Dean and little son Don of Lubbock were over to spend last Friday with her sister-in-law, Mrs. I. R. Witt and family. Mrs. Dean will be remembered in Hamlin as Sarah Edmonds, a daughter of the late Rev. J. H. Edmonds, pastor of the Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Lockard of Bryan returned last Friday after spending the week here with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Moody.

EASY TO OPEN

One thing about the publicity that the scores of state candidates are sending out to the country newspaper boys for free publication... the envelopes are not sealed in most cases, and are easy to open.

Another sailor boy from Hamlin writes from Manila, P. I. saying that he encloses herewith another dollar for the Herald to keep coming. His name is Carl B. Anderson, who has been with the Navy for a long time. Carl was in China soon after the Japs began their outrageous attack and witnessed a lot of the destruction and was many times near the exploding shells. Anderson is on the U. S. Steamship Parrott No. 218 and his letter was dated June 3 in Manila. He said that on or about June 15 they were to set out for a cruise to French-Indo-China for a month or so. Carl always asks about Hamlin and hopes it is fine. Well, Sailor-boy let us tell you this good year 1938 is an unusually good one about old Hamlin. And Hamlin is still keeping head up as one of West Texas' best little towns. We folks here are strong for that big navy and we know that if a fight is forced upon our boys at sea the other fellow will get a hard fall at your hands. Indications would appear that the American people are the most peace loving people in the world, but are not asleep as to what could happen. So as long as patriotic soldiers and sailors are found in our service who should be afraid of any Big Black Wolf? The Herald is glad to have several Hamlin boys out there keeping fit for duty. Hope you will never miss a copy of your little home town paper. Write us Kiddo, for all of us are as ignorant as a calf about what what you see and do.

OPPOSED TO TAXES

Some people begin talking and before they go very far say they are "agin the poll tax, agin the sales tax, agin the gas tax, agin the cigarette tax, agin the auto tax," and so on and on through the whole catalog and would say they are against the property tax if they had some property on the tax rolls listed for some fictitious value. They have the bright idea that somebody else should pay something but not themselves, or hedge about by saying that their (?) tax money is gobbled up by office holders. No officer in Texas ever sets his own salary. He takes what is offered when he asks for the office.

VOTING IS EXERCISING GOOD CITIZENSHIP

Right now there are thousands and thousands of people in Texas who are concerned about whom they should vote for in the various positions that must be filled by some man or woman. Who shall it be? That is the question.

The Herald man would not be so presumptuous as to tell anyone whom they should vote for. One can be mistaken. We have been mistaken and doubtless will be mistaken again. That is one reason why Texas people demand that they have the right to choose new officers every two years or so. Some positions are for four years and a few for six years... none should be for a longer time than four years, according to the way we look at it. Sometimes people are up against it for the right person to place in office. It sometimes happens that not a single one on the ticket is suitable, according to the voters' information. In that case take the least of the evils. Maybe your conscience would be better satisfied if you WRITE IN the name you would prefer. Written-in names count just as if the person ask for his name to be on the ballot.

In our state races, there are a number of paramount positions to be filled. The main ones are for governor and attorney general, Lt. governor and railroad commissioner, and above all of them stands the legislature. Folks, its the legislature that does the work. Don't be fooled. Not a single promise is worth a "tinker's dime" outside of the legislature. Don't expect too much of anybody. Taxes are not going to be lowered. State expenses are not going to be lowered unless we are willing to cut out some of the services we are now getting and paying for. Taxes could be "shifted" if the people demand it. But people do not like to think of "deep" things like taxation... what most people like is personalities, sentiment, entertainment, pour-it-on 'em stuff." One good thing so far this year, we have not heard much rotten mud slinging. Just this word... if you are in doubt, and you are, go to some informed friend for unbiased advice about whom to vote for.

GOVERNOR JIM IS RETIRING FROM THE VOTERS GRASP

Well, it has happened. Governor Allred has succeeded in landing a lifetime federal job "down in Texas." President Roosevelt delivered our governor a judgeship this week, while in Texas.

Governor Jim has not been so popular with his Texas friends the past few months. Governor Jim has meddled quite a bit in other state departments; has played the play-boy act too often to suit oldtimers in Texas. Texas people are a serious kind of people, and generally believe that their officials should play the dignified part all along the line. It looks a bit flimsy to see a he-man governor cavorting about half naked in somebody's pond, grinning like a possum, with his hairy legs and breast looking like rotten logs. If the governor is going to pull off a beauty show, he should at least doll up his body by shaving it clean and dashing on a bit of creamy rouge. But after this, Governor Jim is out of the reach of mere voters. Some say he had about as well quit NOW and let somebody else do the entertaining down at the Mansion. It seems that Texas people would not object to a bit of music and a kindly talk along about breakfast time if it comes from the right fellow. That is an idea. Wonder if Texas people would like to be put to bed by consoling tones from the governor's mansion and be cheered on the way out to the day's work every morning by the same voice. We wonder? But most Texas people do not object to our governor having been thus honored by our great President.

Mr. Allred has made a few mistakes and done some things not so dignified. The Herald has observed at least two mistakes recently that our Jimmy has made. One was appointing a popular son of the President as a member of the Texas A. & M. Board, when as a matter of fact a thousand persons in every county of the state were better qualified for the honor than young Elliott. And do not misunderstand, we are glad Elliott Roosevelt is a citizen of Texas NOW. But Texas people should be first in the control of Texas' affairs. Get the idea? Also we have observed a poor choice in a certain district judgeship appointment, the governor made some time ago. There were plenty of good sober men fitted for the office instead of one who got it. No names have been called here, you notice. And maybe the objection mentioned has been eliminated, but until we know it has, we would hate to risk life and dproperty in such a district judge's hands. The most important part of a governor's job is filling vacancies by his appointments. No appointment should be made altogether on political debts. Texas people, generally believe Governor Allred will serve long and well as a federal judge.

Points and Personalities

by doris pope

Weather: Fair and cloudless. Temperature: Sweltering. Local excitement: nil. Politics: sizzling and very dirty. And so the report for our own fair city goes on this sultry July day when nobody feels like doing anything except try to keep cool.

A certain popular beauty salon, which is famed far and near as a "Matrimonial Bureau", has recently been swamped with applications... and say, you'd better keep an eye on the manager.

It is rumored that a tall, dark and handsome oil man is about to be landed by a local gal—the one with the auburn hair. (Echo on that number, please.)

—00—

After listening to the campaign speeches and promises of some of the leading candidates for governor of the state of Texas, it is very evident that they have forgotten that we even have a Legislature... or maybe it's just—?

A prominent collegian has become very interested in the grocery business, especially since the pretty brunette niece of the manager arrived for a summer visit. (Wonder why the sudden shift from blondes?)

—00—

Why does a young drug employee of our town make so many trips to Sylvester?

—00—

Fifty-fifty: A well known jeweler and his wife recently spent their vacation on the coast. Just before leaving, the wife took the vacation funds, divided by two, put one half in her purse and gave the other half to her husband and told him what she had done. (Evidently, he wasn't paying attention.) They left and he paid all bills and expenses out of his half; seeing that finances were running low, he suggested that they come home. The wife, in complete innocence, thought that he really wanted to come home and agreed. Upon arriving in Hamlin, he discovered the "other half" which was meant for another week of vacation... now, do you wonder at his tragic expression?

The policy of "you pat my back and I'll pat your back" is certainly being practiced (very obviously, too) by two of our outstanding political leaders of the nation and of our Lone Star State. (Wonder what Sonny will want pappa to "trade for" next?)

—00—

The whooping and hollering and honking of horns that you heard Monday wasn't a booster and advertising visit from one of our neighboring towns. It was the formal initiation of four newly-weds into the ranks of the happily married. After such an afternoon of grueling experiences, the N. W.'s declare that a nice, quiet domestic fight would be a simple and pleasant affair. Anyway the boys put on a nice style revue of Parisian designs of—we didn't get the year—were good sports (they couldn't be anything else) about the whole thing and had almost as much fun as the spectators. Then a good barbecue and full stomachs helped to even things up—it was nice that their wives could help them clean up the dishes.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness shown our father during his feeble days, and for your assistance and sympathetic expressions at the time of our father's death.

Especially do we thank Bro. Bate-man and Bro. Hanks. May God's blessing be on each of you.

IF gas cost nothing AT THE WELL

Even if gas could be had for nothing at the well—the cost of using it in your home would not be greatly changed. A large part of what you pay for gas service is the cost of delivering it to your burner tips—and keeping it there every minute. To properly serve you, there is necessary a vast investment in gas reserves sufficient enough to meet any demand, in pipelines and equipment for its transportation and control. Money must be spent to maintain all this equipment at a high standard for dependable service. A skilled organization must be on duty day and night.

There's a difference between "raw materials" and a finished, usable service.

Your home and this community could not risk anything less than the best in gas service. Life and health in the home depend more than ever on the efficiency and quality of service. Yet today, in spite of the fact it is costing Lone Star Gas System more to operate because of rapidly mounting taxes and other new costs, your gas dollar buys more than ever before.

"Lord Dexter"

BOTH tradition and the Constitution of the United States prevent official titles of nobility in this country but the fact remains that we once had an American "Lord." True, he conferred the title upon himself but it was confirmed to the extent that his neighbors in Newburyport, Mass., called him "Lord Dexter."

He started as plain Timothy Dexter but early in his life he began calling himself "Lord Dexter." Then he published a book, "A Pickle for the Knowing Ones" to establish his claim in print. In it he said "I'm the first Lord in the United States of America. Now of Newburyport it is the voice of the people and I can't help it."

Because his book was criticized for not having any punctuation, he issued a second edition. At the end of it were page after page of commas, periods, colons, semicolons, question marks and the like with this explanation: "fourder mister printer the Nowing ones complane of my stops I put in a nuf here and they may peper and sot it as they please."

Eccentric as Lord Dexter was, he was also a shrewd (and lucky) business man. He sent a cargo of mittens to the semi-tropical "West Indies" and most unexpectedly a polar expedition outfitting there bought the whole consignment at a big profit to him. Another cargo of 42,000 warming pans, for which the inhabitants of the West Indies had no use whatsoever, was sold for molasses ladles. When Lord Dexter died in 1806 he left an estate of $35,000, a considerable fortune in those days.

Palindrome

THE man glanced idly at the automobile that had drawn up to the curb, then leaned forward for a closer look. "The perfect palindrome!" he murmured.

"Palindrome?" queried his companion. "Never heard of that make of car. Let's see—P-I-E-R-C-E-A-R-R-O-W—why, that doesn't spell Palindrome."

"Look at the state license tag," was the reply. "It's ALA. 36163. Both the abbreviation of the state and the number read backward the same as forward. Such things are called palindromes. Plenty automobiles from other states have numbers that are the same backward as forward but in Alabama is the only place where you can have the perfect palindrome—name of the state and number—on your license tag."

To have been an even more "perfect palindrome" that car should have been driven by a man named Bob accompanied by a girl named Hannah or Anna. Perhaps, though, a person should "name no one man" in discussing this subject. No doubt there are other men's and other women's names that have that characteristic.

In fact, the history of palindromes goes back to the first of each in the Garden of Eden. The first woman pointed to herself and uttered one word: "Eve." Whereupon, the first man is said to have replied palindromically, "Madam, I'm Adam!"

Let's Talk About Service

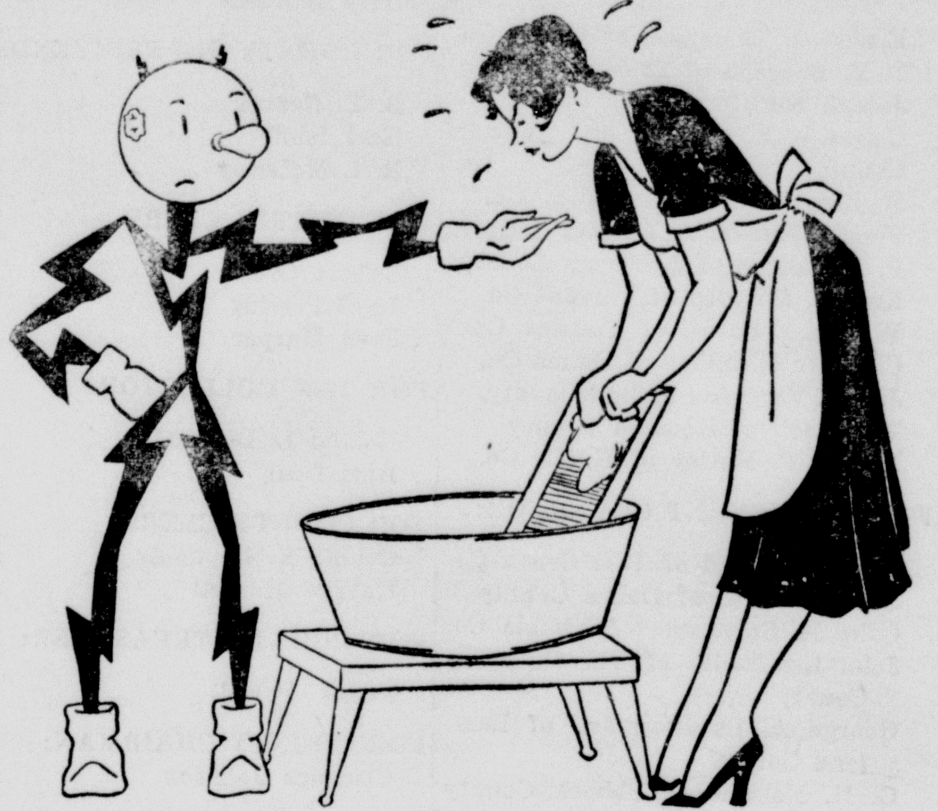

MOST everyone knows that SERVICE, as defined in the dictionary, means: "the act or occupation of working for another . . . the manner of performing work . . . that which is supplied or furnished to meet a demand," etc.

Working for you is Your Electric Servant's occupation. By that act of providing light and power for your home and business, the electric company renders a service. You pay a small amount each month as compensation for this service.

It, perhaps, seems like a simple transaction: but, in order to perform the work of providing the electric service you demand, this company is forced to employ approximately 1,000 men and women to whom it paid over $1,200,000 in wages during 1937. As a citizen and property-owner in every community it serves, it paid the equivalent of $9.25 in taxes per customer in 1937.

By maintaining three centrally-located power generating stations, it eliminates the necessity for less-efficient, isolated and expensive small plants in each community. Its 2,000 miles of high tension transmission lines are interconnected with still other sources of electric power so that failure of any one, or all three, of its own plants means only temporary interruption of the service you have learned to demand.

Efficiency in operation of this system of power plants and transmission and distribution lines permits rendition of electric service at its present low cost. The "manner of performing work" allows this company to render the good service you are receiving at an average net residential rate below the average.

We want you to know we are glad to render this service, "supplying and furnishing that which meets a demand," and we invite you to use this service freely.

COTTON CLASSING

A number of boys have been attending a cotton classing school at the West Texas Cotton Growers Association at Abilene. Mr. W. Sayles has been instructing these boys. The boys who will go to the short course to represent Jones County, in cotton classing, will be Douglas Lovvorn of the Stamford Club, Dale King of Anson Club, D. C. Rister of Hawley Club. First alternate, Melvin Burton of Nugent Club, and second alternate, W. G. Pritchett of Stamford Club.

Some farmers are reporting the presence of cotton flea hoppers. This insect may be distinguished by its appearance on young cotton plants, by the perishing of small squares about the size of pin heads. The adult stage of the cotton flea hopper is $\frac{3}{4}$ of an inch in size and a pale greenish white in color. The nymph is much the same in appearance, except much smaller. This insect can be controlled by the use of sulphur ground so that 93 to 95 per cent will pass a 325 mesh screen and must be dusted and not sprayed. It is preferable to use dusting machine that is capable of generating the sulphur dust on the cotton. This insect is generally present when there is an abundance of rain fall. Since conditions are favorable, it will be worth your time to check your cotton in order to get an even start with controlling this insect.

It takes from 3 to 5 applications of sulphur generally and apply from 12 to 20 pounds per acre. Plans are being made for two sulphur demonstrations in the county, if the infestation justifies the demonstrations.

About six hundred farms have been measured in Jones County for compliance with the 1938 program. Committeemen are putting forth all efforts to complete this compliance work. According to our information, this work must be completed before cotton can be sold.

The first wheat crop insurance application has been received in Jones County. This policy was drawn in the name of P. M. Jensen who lives in the Avoca school district. The premium a farmer pays for his policy depends upon his average yield, number of crop failures he has experienced and county average wheat crop loss.

We have a limited time to take wheat insurance applications and it will be necessary for any producer who desires to file application for wheat crop insurance to do so before August 31, 1938. Mr. C. F. Hill, of Nugent Rt., Abilene, is County Wheat Crop Insurance Supervisor and to those of you who are interested in obtaining further information in regard to wheat insurance, please contact Mr. Hill or call in the County Agent's office.

WHEN IS LAND PLANTED TO COTTON?

The state office has advised that land on which cotton reaches the stage of growth at which bolls are first formed is considered as being planted to cotton. If you have unknowingly planted cotton in excess of your allotment and wish to destroy this excess acreage it must be plowed up before bolls are formed. If excess cotton is destroyed before bolls are formed, the land will not be considered as planted to cotton. It will be impossible for us to have everything measured before cotton reaches this stage, so we would suggest that you try to have your cotton within your quota at the time of planting.

In cases where small grains are harvested and followed by cotton, and the cotton reaches maturity, the small grain, if other than wheat, would not be reported. If the small grain is wheat, the acreage will be counted twice and reported as both. Grain sorghum can be planted on stubble, or on insect destroyed cotton land without affecting the payment as long as the total soil depleting allotment has not been exceeded.

If acreage planted to cotton is less than 80 per cent of the cotton allotment, and the county committee finds that the failure to plant 80 per cent of the cotton allotment to cotton was not caused by flood or drought, the cotton payment will be reduced. For purposes of 80 per cent provision only acreage seeded to cotton, which is seriously damaged or destroyed by hail or insect before bolls are first formed will be considered as being planted to cotton. No payment with respect to cotton will be made unless land on the farm is considered as being planted to cotton except where failure to plant was due to flood or drought.

If a producer planted 80 per cent of his cotton allotment to cotton and the cotton was later destroyed by insects or unfavorable weather conditions, before putting on bolls, it is still considered as having been planted to cotton so far as the 80 per cent ruling is concerned.

If the cotton is destroyed, the acreage may be replanted to grain sorghums without affecting in any way the payments that might be made to the farm.

First Football Helmet

BACK in the early days of football, the days of "flying wedges," many plays and no forward passes, its husky players wore little of the protective armor of later days. They went into the fray bare-headed—and hoped for the best!

So on December 2, 1893, when the Navy team trotted out on the field for the fourth game of the first series played with the Army, spectators looked with amazement at one of the Navy players. It was Capt. Joseph M. Reeves and he was wearing a clumsy contraption on his head. It was a heavy felt pad, covered with doeskin, and tied with leather straps under his chin, which made him look very much like a Tibetan lama.

But there was a good reason for his wearing it. The hard-hitting captain had suffered a head injury, and if he didn't play, defeat of the Navy was almost certain. So the coach had the trainer fashion this helmet—the first ever used in football—for him and it enabled him to stay through the whole game which the Navy won by a score of 6 to 4.

The Captain Reeves of 1893-94 in later years became Rear-Admiral Reeves and a member of the general board in the Navy department at Washington. Another member of that team was also marked for future distinction. He was known then as "Spooney" Churchill, right guard. A later generation of Americans was to know him as Winston Churchill, author of "The Crossing," "The Crisis" and a number of other distinguished novels of American life.

Curiosa Americana

By Elmo Scott Watson

President-Maker

HIS name may have been Jonathan Robins, American, or it may have been Thomas Nash, Englishman—which, history has never decided for sure. But it is certain that his death kept John Adams from serving a second term in the White House and sent Thomas Jefferson there instead.

Robins, according to his story, was a Danbury, Conn., boy attending school in England when he was seized by a British "press gang" and forced to serve in the British navy. Off the coast of Spain he struck down and killed the brutal captain of his ship, leaped overboard and swam safely to shore. Making his way to Paris, he presented himself to the American minister who believed his story and obtained passage for him on an American schooner bound for Charleston S. C.

When he reached Charleston, the British consul there demanded his surrender, under the terms of the Jay treaty, and his return to England to stand trial for murder. Despite Robins' protest that he was an American, the consul declared that he was in reality Thomas Nash, a British citizen.

Robins-Nash became an international figure—the symbol of a dispute between two nations. Finally John Adams settled it by ordering the boy to be surrendered. He was taken to England, tried and hanged. Then the storm broke. The Republicans, who had repeatedly denounced the treaty made by John Jay, the Federalist, seized upon the incident for political ammunition. The Republican papers kept it hot in the minds of the public and heaped abuse on Adams' head for "servile truckling to Great Britain." When the next election came, he was eliminated from the race which lay between Jefferson and Aaron Burr. The election went to the house of representatives. Jefferson was chosen President and Burr Vice President.

BLACK-DRAUGHT A GOOD LAXATIVE

HOW LONG IS A SECOND?

Wife—I'll be ready in one second. Hubby—All right; I'll be back in half an hour.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

It is easy in the world to live the world's opinion; it is easy in solitude after our own; but the great man is he who in the midst of the crowd keeps with perfect sweetness the independence of solitude.—Emerson.

A recent speaker before a woman's club was giving a description of his recent trip to Europe; and he told how hard many of the women worked. "It is no uncommon sight," he stated, "to see a woman and a donkey hitched up together."

"That is not so unusual," interrupted a member of his audience. "You frequently see that over here."

REGULAR NUISANCE

Little Mary met the doctor. "Yo' brought a little baby next door, didn't you?" she inquired. "Yes," he answered. "Shall I bring one to your house?" "No, thanks," came the prompt reply. "Why, we've scarcely time even to wash the dog."

What we think or what we know or what we believe is, in the end, of little consequence—the only thing of consequence is what we do.—Ruskin.
